RULES FOR HOISTING FLAGS ON BUILDINGS OF THE SCOTTISH GOVERNMENT

Issue No. 23
(Valid from January 2018)

1. Review

This issue of the Scottish Government Flag Flying Guidance applies to the calendar year 2018 only.

2. Extent of Application

These guidelines apply to the Scottish Government, its related Agencies and associated Departments. The UK and other devolved governments each has its own flag flying guidelines.

Local authority buildings and schools are not affected by these guidelines; the matter of flag flying remaining one for individual local authorities to determine. These rules and dates are not binding on other public institutions, or members of the public. With the exception of the Royal Standard, which may not be flown without permission from Her Majesty The Queen, these other groups may fly any flag at any time, no weight of public authority being implied behind such flag flying.

3. Dates On Which Flags Are To Be Flown

The Saltire should be flown every day from Scottish Government buildings, except where indicated otherwise in the schedule.

The Protocol and Honours Team, Cabinet, Parliament and Governance Division, Directorate for Strategy and Constitution, will inform the relevant authorities of any other occasions on which Her Majesty The Queen has given a special command to fly flags. Only on exceptional occasions would a flag (other than the Saltire) be flown on a day other than a listed day. Any requests to fly flags on exceptional occasions must be cleared in advance with the First Minister through the Protocol and Honours Team.

4. Flying Of Other Flags

The only flags that should be flown from Scottish Government buildings in Scotland are the Saltire, the Europe flag (Europe Day only), the Red Ensign (Merchant Navy Day only), the Commonwealth flag (Commonwealth Day only), The Armed Forces Day flag (Armed Forces Day only), the Royal Standard at St Andrew's House (by Special Command or Royal Assent), the Rainbow flag from St. Andrew's House and Victoria Quay and the Union flag (Remembrance Day only) from St Andrew's House and Victoria Quay. Other flags, including those of other nations, should not normally be flown from Scottish Government buildings (see 3 above).

5. Superior Position

If there is an even number of flag poles, the superior position is the left of centre flag pole viewed from the street (looking towards the front of the building). If there is an odd number of flag poles the superior position is the central pole.

6. How The European, Red Ensign, Commonwealth and Armed Forces Day, Rainbow Flags Should Be Flown

On buildings that have only one flag pole, the Europe, Red Ensign, Commonwealth, Armed Forces Day and Rainbow Flags should be flown for that specific flag flying date only. Where a building has two or more flag poles, these flags may be flown on the appropriate date in addition to the Saltire flag but not in a superior position. If a building has three flag poles, to avoid any doubt, the third pole should remain vacant.

7. How The Union Flag Should Be Flown

The broader diagonal white stripe should be at the top left hand side of the flag nearest the flag pole.

8. Use of the Royal Banner

The Royal Banner of the Royal Arms of Scotland (the 'Lion Rampant') is Her Majesty The Queen's official banner in Scotland. Flags showing the Royal Banner or the Royal Arms as used in Scotland (the Quartered Arms) are Ensigns of Public Authority, and are therefore only used by The Sovereign or Her Great Officers, such as Lord-Lieutenants, when acting in that capacity.

In the capacity of Keeper of the Great Seal the First Minister may fly the Royal Banner of the Royal Arms of Scotland.

If Her Majesty The Queen or any other member of The Royal Family is to be present in your building at any time, please contact the Protocol and Honours Team, Cabinet, Parliament and Governance Division, Directorate for Strategy and Constitution to make the necessary arrangements.

9. Flying Of Flags At Half Mast

'Half-mast' -the flag is flown two-thirds up the flag pole.

The occasions on which flags are to be flown at half-mast are:

- (a) on the death of the Sovereign, further guidance will be given at that time.
- (b) the funerals of members of the Royal Family, further guidance will be given in each case;
- (c) the funerals of foreign rulers, further guidance will be given at the time;
- (d) the funerals of serving and ex-Prime Ministers of the United Kingdom, and the funerals of serving and former First Ministers of Scotland, further guidance will be issued at the time.
- (e) International Workers Memorial Day (28 April)

10. Acts Of Terrorism And Other Human Tragedies

The Death And Funeral Of Serving And Ex-Serving Foreign Rulers

In the event of an act of terrorism or other human tragedy, flags should not be flown at half-mast unless a special command is issued to the contrary. The Protocol and Honours Team will be your point of contact.
